We always wanted a destination wedding in New Zealand... somewhere beautiful with warm, reliable weather. We both had great memories from the Hawke's Bay of wine tasting, blue oceans, and endless summer skies. I had always dreamed of having a Gatsby-themed wedding and getting married in the Art Deco capital of New Zealand was perfect!

Wedding planning from Auckland was a breeze because Hawke's Bay has so many amazing vendors. They were great to communicate with and so professional and all knew each other, so it was like being welcomed into a family.

We chose Elephant Hill as a venue due to its fine dining, delicious wine, impeccable service, and exquisite view.

We had our photos first on Marine Parade in Napier then up Te Mata Peak. The ceremony was held on the balcony of Elephant Hill, overlooking the cliffs of Cape Kidnappers. This was followed by a cocktail hour and a live brass band.

Our guests commented that the food was some of the best they had ever eaten!

We couldn't have had a better experience planning and having a wedding in the Hawke's Bay and we look forward to many more anniversaries there.

A wedding couple is seen from behind, walking away on a grassy hill. The bride is wearing a white dress and veil, and the groom is in a dark suit. They are walking towards a sunset over a valley with rolling hills. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow. The hills are covered in tall grass, and the sky is a mix of orange and yellow.
